

The Royal Hotel is becoming the Vitaurina – a homage to the beautiful life, "la dolce vita" and the green Ahrntal valley, "Valle Aurina", to living in accordance with nature, to the South Tyrolean and Sardinian character of our house, which is reflected in every corner. In July 2019, the Vitaurina will await you in its new look!

How come, you might ask? Just find it out yourself! VITAUT na

Will he conquer her or not?

Our unique love story is set amongst green pastures and impressive mountains. A taut South Tyrolean guy falls for the Italian beauty. Will he conquer her heart? Do they fit together? Aren't they too different? We will see, if a holiday flirt can become true amore!

There's a lot to discover on the journey – but nothing is as impressive as the mountains of the Ahrntal valley.

Finally arrived! Let's make a picture of this truly special landscape.

He just can't take his eyes off of her

Already the first looks leave no doubt. Our South Tyrolean outdoorsman immediately falls for the Italian beauty. With compliments and some fine wine he tries to conquer his queen of hearts. But the lady keeps the casanova waiting and enjoys the outstanding panoramic view instead.

A dreamy look here a shy smile there ... They share some Alpine-Mediterranean inspired treats and get a little closer.

With a sparkling Hugo, made of homemade elder syrup, the mood loosens during aperitivo time.

A trip to the green

On his vespa, our hero rides his sweetheart through the nature paradise of the Ahrntal valley – Valle Aurina in her language – and shows her the most attracting places of this unique piece of earth. She is thrilled by the beautiful way of life in accordance with nature, the merging of North and South, South Tyrolean mountains combined with Italian lifestyle, in a nutshell: just everything the Vitaurina represents.

... that's summer!

Together, they explore the picturesque valley ...

... and the numerous landmarks, silent witnesses of former times ...

Such as the Taufers Castel, they taste the culinary treasures of the region.

And follow the many hiking paths up to rustic alps and high mountain summits.

A place to fall for

After their discovery tour, some sweet temptations come in handy. The South Tyrolean beau plays his primadonna some love songs – she seems to like that! Both of them enjoy tasty homemade tarts with delicious Italian coffee and their time together in the sunny garden. The lady has already taken a fancy ... to the place, the warm acquaintance of the hosts, the accommodation and maybe also to something else ...

In the modern wellness area, the sunny boy slowly breaks into a sweat – and not just because of the sauna heat!

Deeply relaxed and full of anticipation they arrange to meet in the evening.

Enjoying a perfect hideaway

Prior to their evening date, the both retreat to their all-new comfort rooms. The wooden interior and gentle colors make for a very pleasant atmosphere. One or the other takes a short nap, listening to the charming sounds of nature through the open balcony door. A slight breeze moves the airy curtains and makes the mind wander ... What will the date be like?

Mediterranean cloth and local natural materials make for a unique comfort.

Soft and warm beds – the best premise for a good night's sleep.

The way to the heart is through the stomach

Accompanied by candlelight and fine wine in the trendy dining room, the sparks between our two sweethearts shoot out. The successful combination of South Tyrolean and Italian cuisine too, showing itself through lovely arranged dishes, gives the evening a very special note. The couple obviously enjoys their time together. We're wondering what the night may bring. One is for sure: it will definitely be a "notte magica"!
